Nation Hall & Dellinger Hall

South Campus

Nation and Dellinger Halls are considered traditional residence halls with community bathrooms. Both halls are co-ed by floor. The approximate standard size of rooms in Nation and Dellinger is about 10’ x 17’ (measurement includes floor space only and doesn’t account for closet space).

Nation Hall has one wall of closet space and a built-in chest of drawers. Rooms are furnished with a standard bunkable bed, mattress, desk, and chair for each resident.

Dellinger Hall will be renovated in the summer of 2013. All furniture will be portable. Floors will be hardwood laminate. Long bunkable beds, mattresses, desks, chairs, chests, and wardrobes are included in each room.

Hall Facts:

Approximate Sizes: The layouts and measurements are approximate. Please note that many halls have single, double, and triple occupancy rooms and these measurements account for a standard double room and its approximate size. The layouts included are only samples of each room. Not every room in every hall looks exactly alike.

Each room includes a neutral room color, vertical blinds, phone line, expanded basic cable, direct wired and wireless Ethernet access, Air Conditioning, and is smoke free. All buildings are co-ed by floor, except in Willard (co-ed by suite) and Crimson Commons (co-ed by apartment).

Public Areas Available in Each Hall:

- Kitchenettes in Crimson Commons, Bowen Hall, Tanner Complex, Trout Hall, and Nation Hall
- Laundry facilities in every hall
- Bathroom facilities on each floor shared by residents of the floor, with the exception of Willard and Crimson Commons
- Lounge area equipped with TV, microwave, study tables, couches and chairs.
Willard Hall

Willard Hall is an upperclass, suite style building with private bathrooms or a bathroom shared between two rooms. There are a variety of different room types in Willard. The standard room is approximately 12’ x 13’, not including the bath facility or closet space. The closets are built in. Rooms are furnished with a long bunkable bed, mattress, chest, desk, and chair for each resident. Willard has single, double, and triple rooms. It is co-ed by suite.

Crimson Commons

Crimson Commons is an apartment style residence hall consisting of five separate buildings. Each apartment has four private bedrooms (approximately 10.5’ x 9’) furnished with a long bed, chest, desk, and chair. A built in closet is included. Within the apartment there is also a partially furnished living room (approximately 12’ x 9’), kitchenette, bathroom with double sinks, and separate shower and toilet areas. The kitchenette includes cabinets, sink, refrigerator, and microwave. The complex is co-ed by apartment. Crimson Commons is primarily an upperclassman hall however limited spaces are available for first year students.