Jeff Brown, National Director
Navy League of the United States

Born and raised in Pittsburg, Kansas. Jeff now lives in Kula, Hawaii. Jeff is the Director of Security at the Maui High Performance Computer Center (MHPCC), an Air Force Laboratory Center and DoD Supercomputing Resource Center managed by the University of Hawaii in Maui, Hawaii. Jeff is also the Co-Chairman of the Aloha Industrial Security Awareness Council.

Jeff is a former US Marine and Army Intelligence Officer and has held various law enforcement, intelligence & security position throughout his career. He volunteers his time serving on the boards of several Hawaiian non-profit associations and is Past President of the Maui Shrine Club of the Aloha Temple.

Jeff is a graduate of PSU 1983 and is the son of Harold R. Brown and Demarice J. Brown ’52 and ’54 graduates from PSU.

Content from Navy League of the United States Pacific Region Newsletter, April 1, 2012