Department of Communication
Tenure Earning Assistant Professor of Communication

Terms of Appointment: Assistant Professor of Communication; Tenure track; salary starting from a base of $44,500 for nine-month appointment. Date of appointment is August 15, 2016.

Job Description: Teach 12 credit hours per semester in the areas of applied strategic communication and core curriculum. Additional opportunity to teach at the graduate level. Responsibilities include: advising students, conducting research, supervising student research, internships and student organizations.

Qualification: Applicants should have a deep knowledge of the field of strategic communication, and practical experience is an asset. A successful applicant will be able to join our faculty teaching rotation for our strategic communication courses as well as offering upper level courses in their specialty area. Required: Ph.D. in communication or related field. ABD acceptable for initial appointment. Preferred: Teaching experience in strategic communication or teaching with practitioner experience.

Application: For first consideration, applications are to be received by Friday, January 8, 2016. Send letter of application, curriculum vitae, evidence of teaching effectiveness, samples of professional work and the names/contact information of three reference to: Mike Gullett, Professor, Strategic Communication Search Committee Chair, Department of Communication, 1701 South Broadway, 215 Grubbs Hall, Pittsburg State University, Pittsburg, KS 66762. For full job description go to Pittsburg State University’s web site, www.pittstate.edu/office/hr/jobs.dot. Pittsburg State University is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action employer. Employment will require a criminal background check. Position contingent upon funding.