

MICHAEL TILFORD

CONFERENCE ON DIVERSITY AND MULTICULTURALISM

Living Into Brown: Staying the Course Towards Inclusion and Belonging

Washburn University

October 5-6, 2023

The Michael Tilford Conference provides an opportunity for educators, community and business leaders to examine inclusion and belonging in education and business.

Speakers include Dr. Nicole Hodges-Persley, associate professor of American studies and African and African American studies at the University of Kansas; Sarah Deer, distinguished professor at the University of Kansas School of Law, chief justice for the Prairie Island Indian Community Court of Appeals and 2014 Macarthur Fellow; Ray Dempsey, Jr., chief diversity officer at Barclays Bank; Dr. Rodney Palmer, chair of the department of religion and biblical languages and an associate professor of religion at Andrews University; and Cheryl Brown Henderson, founding president of the Brown Foundation for Educational Equity, Excellence and Research and owner of the educational consulting firm Brown & Associates.

You can learn more about the conference and presentations:
news.washburn.edu/tilfordconference

Dr. Nicole Hodges-Persley

Sarah Deer

Ray Dempsey, Jr.

Dr. Rodney Palmer

Cheryl Brown Henderson

This event is free for Washburn students, faculty and staff to attend and open to the public. You can register using the QR code.

