

Kelce College Faculty Qualifications Summary

BIENVENIDO S. CORTES

AACSB Qualification Status: Practice Academic

Basis for Qualification: Ph.D. in field

Peer reviewed journal articles

Conference presentations

Non-profit board member

Public service projects

Administrative duties

Highest Degree: Ph D, 1987

Institution: Oklahoma State University

Specialization/Major: International Economics and Development

Sample Intellectual Contributions:

Peer Reviewed Journal Articles

Cortes, B. S. (2021). A Model of Micropolitan Area Sensitivity to the Business Cycle: Evidence from the Plains Region. International Journal of Business and Finance Research, 15(1), 61-76.

Cortes, B.S. (2023), and Ooi, Z. Cultural Intelligence, Firm Capabilities, and Performance: The Case of German Subsidiaries in Malaysia. Businesses, 3, 460-474.

Conference Proceedings

Cortes, B. S. Micropolitan Statistical Areas and the Business Cycle: The Case of the Plains Region.
The Institute for Business and Finance Research.

Public Service

Board of Directors, Wesley House, Pittsburg, KS.

Board, Kansas Teachers Community Credit Union, Pittsburg, KS.

Professional Memberships

Academy of Economics and Finance
American Association of Behavioral and Social Sciences
American Society of Business and Behavioral Sciences
Beta Gamma Sigma business honors society
East Asian Economics Association
Fulbright Association
Japan Economic Policy Association
Mid-Continent Regional Science Association
Missouri Valley Economic Association
National Social Science Association
Regional Science Association International