Office: Kelce 223C

Course structure

- Weekly activities will be posted on Mondays (at the class starting time) and due on Wednesday (by the class ending time) on Canvas
- On Mondays, physical attendance is mandatory as your instructor will go over learning materials during the class meeting. Afterwards, you can start working on activities during the remaining period of class. Any doubts and questions on requirements will be cleared on Mondays. You can continuously work on the assigned activities after the class meeting
- On Wednesdays, class attendance is optional (You are allowed to finish up your weekly activity at home and submit it remotely). Of course, you may come to Kelce 105 and use lab computers to complete your weekly activity as the lab is reserved during the scheduled class time. I will be present at my office; Kelce 223C (North Faculty Suite) and answer your questions if any. You can knock on my door or send me an email if you have questions. Of course, this is completely optional.
- We will have two Exams
- Your instructor does not have a separate office hour as Wednesdays function as walk-in help sessions. However, we can arrange a time whenever necessary (Just send me an email for appointment)
- You may use computers at Kelce 103 and 105
 - Lab hours: 7:30 AM to 8:30 PM (M to TR), 7:30 AM to 4 PM (Friday), Closed (Saturday and Sunday). Kelce 103 and 105 are open to public when they don't have classes during the indicated time.
 - You may call to find reserved hours for classes (4196)

Questions

Learning in an online mode can be achieved only through asking many questions. Note that there's no such thing as a stupid question. You should not be afraid to ask.

Canvas

Class announcements and assignments will be posted on Canvas. Private communication with your instructor will be done through email or Canvas messaging system. You are expected to regularly visit Canvas course homepage to keep up with ongoing class discussion and information update.

Submission

All the weekly activities need to be submitted to Canvas. It is your responsibility to confirm if your submission file is intact. Please, check out your file after each submission (by downloading your submitted file). In case your file is corrupted/not visible/empty, you will receive zero.

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to access Canvas regularly and participate fully in the activities of the class. The instructor will drop students with excessive absence.

Late Submission Policy

- Late submission is not allowed in principle
- Inform your instructor if you encounter an emergency situation

Academic Integrity

All Pitt State students are bound by the academic integrity policies of the university as described and outlined in the current Syllabus Supplement. Please familiarize yourself with these rules and guidelines. In addition, as a course offered through the Kelce College of Business, students in this class are obligated to adhere to the college's Student Code of Ethics as outlined below.

Students pledge to:

- Arrive on time, remain until dismissed at all class sessions, and notify instructors in advance of anticipated absences, late arrivals, or early departures whenever possible.
- Turn off cell phones or other electronic devices while in class, unless permission to use them has been granted.
