Teaching Methods

Lecture, discussion, and in-class problems along with McGraw Hill Connect Class participation is expected which includes, but is not limited to, coming to class prepared, (textbook, paper, pencil, calculator, PowerPoint, other notes etc.) Participating in problem solving, general discussion, and all other class activities. Class lectures will be brief and will be based on the textbook material and Power Point presentations. Most of the class time will be spent working on exercises and problems from the text. It is essential that you complete the required out of class assignments so that you can benefit fully from the activities completed in class.

Canvas

Homework assignments will be posted in Canvas and Connect; Announcements, Grades, PowerPoints, Notes and other material will be posted on Canvas. Unit exams will be taken on Canvas.

Attendance Policy

If for some reason you need to miss a class, it will be up to you to get notes from another student in the class. Students who need to miss a class can also read the text on their own and consult the syllabus and content on Canvas for help on catching up from an absence.

Classroom Conduct

Treat others as you wish to be treated. Please, no food in the classroom, Participate, ask questions, be engaged. Employers of PSU graduates frequently tell us that professionalism, writing skills, ethics, and accountability are high on their list of qualities they seek in potential employees. In order to help students prepared for a professional career, professional conduct will be required in the classroom.

Academic Integrity

All Pitt State students are bound by the academic integrity policies of the university as described and outlined in the current Syllabus Supplement. Please familiarize yourself with these rules and guidelines. In addition, as a course offered through the Kelce College of Business, students in this class are obligated to adhere to the college's Student Code of Ethics as outlined below.

Students shall:

- Arrive on time and remain until dismissed at all class sessions and to notify instructors in advance of anticipated absences, late arrivals, or early departures whenever possible.
- Turn off cell phones or other electronic devices while in class, unless permission to use them has been granted.

- Refrain from class disturbances including, but not limited to vulgar language, threats, nonverbal conduct and/or clothing considered to be offensive.
- Prepare for and participate in all classes.
- Treat fellow students, staff, faculty, and administrators with respect.
- Prepare assignments and exams honestly.
- Avoid plagiarism or unacknowledged appropriation of another's work in any academic work. Refrain from giving or receiving inappropriate assistance. Submitting answers found online as your own may result in a grade of "F" in the course for the semester.
- Respect University property and use resources in the most effective and efficient manner.
- Obey the policies, regulations, and laws of the United States of America, The State of Kansas, The Kansas Board of Regents, Pittsburg State University and the Gladys A. Kelce College of Business.
- *In summary: DO YOUR OWN WORK!

Course Evaluation Methods (Grading)

4 exams @ 100 pts. Each	400
Case studies done in groups (12 @ 5 pts)	60
Homework Assignments (13 @ 10 pts)	130
Total points available	590

A -90-100%

B-80-89%

C-70-79%

D-60-69%

F- 0-59%

Your final grade is based on a percentage of total points. If you have any questions regarding grades during the semester, please contact your instructor after class, or by email. Your final grade is NOT open for negotiation. Your grade will be determined by the points you earned during the semester and will not be influenced by the grade you need for graduation, to maintain academic standing, to gain admittance into a degree program with competitive admissions, or for any other reason.

Unit Exams

Exams will generally consist of 25 multiple choice questions worth 3 points each. Exams will be available on McGraw Hill Connect and must be taken on a laptop with a camera. Students will need to install the proctoring software from McGraw Hill before taking the exam. Late or Makeup Exams will not be allowed. Students experiencing technical issues should contact McGraw Hill Connect Customer Service. That number changes sometimes so try googling it.

Recordings of quiz sessions made by the McGraw Hill proctoring software are an essential component of maintaining the academic integrity of this class. Students are responsible for following the proper requirements and protocols that will result in a recording that is complete and capable of being reviewed. Recordings that are incomplete or recorded in such a way that they are incapable of being reviewed because of poor lighting conditions, excessive movement, or other obfuscation will result in a penalty ranging from a warning to a zero on the exam. Any penalty will be at the instructor's discretion.

The use of phones, tablets, secondary computers, or any other secondary electronic device during Chapter Quizzes is NOT allowed. This includes the wearing of headphones or earbuds. The use of a secondary device and/or the wearing of headphones/earbuds while taking a Chapter Quiz constitutes academic dishonesty will result in a penalty ranging from a warning to a zero on the exam. Any penalty will be at the instructor's discretion.

Chapter Cases

There will be 12-chapter cases during the semester that will be done in class in groups of two or three. Cases will be handed in at the end of class and be worth up to 5 pts each for those who attend class and up to 1 points each for those who are absent from the class on the day we do this.

Homework

Homework will be assigned for every chapter and will be composed of a selection of the exercises and problems from the end of the chapter. Each homework assignment will be worth 5 points. Homework assignments will be graded based upon completion, not correctness – if you do all the problems, you receive all 5 points. You may work with other students on the homework, but the work you turn in must be your own. If duplicate work is turned in, neither student will receive credit. All homework must be turned in by 11:59 PM on the due date listed on the course guide. All homework must be done as a Microsoft Excel file and attached to the assignment that you submit in Canvas. You must show your work on the homework problems, using equations, functions, cell references, etc. in Excel instead of just values.

Please Note

The instructor reserves the right to amend and to reorganize this syllabus at any time and for any reason during the class and semester.
