

Isaac Kelso Deer Scholarship

Isaac Kelso Deer

This scholarship was created in memory of Isaac Kelso Deer by his son, Montie, in 2010. Isaac Kelso Deer received his degree in secondary education in 1938 from Pittsburg State University which was then called the Kansas State Teachers College.

Requirements:

Preference given to: (Indicates order)

Major:

- (1) Reading Specialist/Licensure
- (2) Ethnicity – American Indian OR Alaska Native

Degree:

- (3)Bachelor of Science in Education
- (3) Bachelor of Music Education

Special Preferences:

Recipients may be full or part time graduates or undergraduates of the College of Education. First preference given to students in the reading specialist program. Second preference given to any Native American student. Third preference given to any student majoring within the College of Education.