

Patricia Coleman Student Teaching Scholarship

Patricia Coleman - 1968

This scholarship was established in 2024 by Patricia Coleman who received her B.S.Ed in 1968 from Kansas State College of Pittsburg. Ms. Coleman had to rely on scholarships, grants, and on campus employment to attend college. She is grateful for the support she got and wants to give back a little to help elementary education students during their professional semester.

Requirements:

Degree:

- Elementary Education (K-6)
- Elementary Education Unified (K-6)

Undergraduate

Special Requirements:

Recipients must be full time undergraduate students majoring in either Elementary Education (K-6) or Elementary Education Unified (K-6). Two recipients shall be chosen each year, one in the fall semester and one in the spring semester, and the scholarship shall be awarded during the semester the recipient is student teaching.